W. J. CAPLINGER RE-ELECTED

As Superintendent of the Maysville Public Schools For a Three Year Term—Dr. W. S. Yazell Resigns as Member of School Board.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of Education of the Public Schools was held last evening in the High School building and several matters of importance were acted upon.

The reports of the various officers and Superintendent Caplinger were received. In the latter's report he gave some interesting facts concerning the domestic science departments in the colored and white high schools. He also reported that no school census would be taken this year, on account of a law passed by a recent legislature which called for such a census biennially.

On motion Superintendent Caplinger was given leave of absence to attend the state meeting of the Kentucky Educational Association which will be held in Louisville during the latter part of next month.

The election of a superintendent for the schools was then entered into. Prof. Caplinger, who has been superintendent of the schools for the past four years, was elected unanimously by the Board at an increased salary for a term of three years. Mr. Caplinger accepted the position for the term.

The resignation of Dr. W. S. Yazell as a member of the Board of Education from the Second Ward was read and accepted by the board with regret. Dr. Yazell explained to the Board his reasons for asking to leave the body. He has been a member of the board for fourteen years. Mr. George Harbourn was unanimously selected by the Board to fill Dr. Yazell's unexpired term of office.

On motion the Board adjourned. The action of the Board in re-electing Prof. Caplinger for the superintendency for the ensuing three years will meet with general approval from the citizens from all over the city. Prof. Caplinger has made an excellent superintendent and the schools have increased greatly in efficiency since his first election to the Maysville schools, four years ago. His work has always been very conscientious and always for the good of the schools. It is certain that he will meet with as great a success in the next three years of his work here as he has in the past.

MR. VICTOR BOGARET

A Belgian Red Cross Worker Will Speak at the Washington Opera House on Sunday Afternoon in the Interests of His People.

Mr. Victor Bogaret, a resident of Lexington, Ky., but a native born Belgian, will speak in the Washington Opera House on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the interests of the people of his nation, who are now in the throes of starvation and want.

Mr. Bogaret was in Brussels, Belgium, at the time the war broke out. He immediately went to the front as a Red Cross Nurse and later he came to America to secure aid for the his stricken people. He has been in America but a short time and he is giving his entire time to the Belgian Relief work. He is a well known and highly esteemed citizen of Lexington and comes here with the endorsement and support of the ministers of his elly.

Mr. Bogaret spoke before the students of the High School and higher grades on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Those hearing him report that he gave a very good talk, and although his speech was somewhat broken, he could be understood well.

It is to be hoped that the people at large in the city and surrounding territory turn out to hear his message. He has seen all of the things he will tell concerning the awful devastation of his native land. All should be willing to do whatever they can at this time for the little nation that is so much in need.

Every one that attends will be greatly repaid for coming to hear Mr. Bogaret's description of the war.

FIRST DISTRICT SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT

The First District School gave a musical entertainment in the school last evening for the benefit of the penny lunch. The entertainment was given under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association of that school. A very neat sum was realized from the entertainment to add to the fund. All present expressed themselves as pleased with the evening.

FOUR YEARS AGO TODAY

The Big Flood Reached Its Highest Mark of 66.4 Feet—Great Contrast Between Then and Now.

March 31, 1913, just four years ago today, marked the highest of the greatest flood ever known in the Ohio River Valley, going over the marks made by the famous high water of 1884 by several inches. The stage of the river at that time was 66.4 feet.

At that time the only connection with East Maysville and the western portion of the city, was a string of flat cars on the L. & N. bridge and even then many persons thought that the water would go higher and cover those also.

Several hundred homes were inundated in this city, only four or five north of the railroad in the East End not having water on the first floor. The water had come around the corner of Bridge and Third streets. The Ledger of that date tells of a prominent gentleman watering his horse in front of the Robinson Clear Store on West Second street.

But the citizens of Maysville soon recovered from the effects of the flood. A general cleaning out was made necessary in the flood district and this was done immediately. Danger of an epidemic was uppermost in the minds of the people and the Board of Health made strenuous efforts to make conditions as sanitary as possible.

Today the citizens still remember the dark days of the latter part of March and the early part of April, 1913, with a shudder, but our city has recovered from the effects of the flood. Property value of houses in the flood districts has greatly increased and the citizens of Maysville feel assured that such a flood will not happen for another 30 years and they devoutly hope that it will never occur again.

OPPORTUNITY FOR NEW AGRICULTURAL INDUSTRY

All through the corn belt of the North and the cotton belt of the South, the soy beans are growing successfully, yet we are importing soy bean oil in large quantities from Japan. This situation demonstrates the need of a constructive effort to establish a soy bean industry in this country that will make us independent of the product across the Pacific. Soy beans paid a duty of 45 cents per bushel under Republican law, the oil and cake coming in free. Under the present law the beans and its products are free of duty.

Northern Manchuria has been the great center for soy bean culture, and of course the labor cost there, compared with that in this country is negligible. A large proportion of the crop goes to Japan, where it is made into oil cake, oil cake meal, and oil. Here, again, the labor cost is at a minimum, with the result that the Japanese can command the market in these products all over the world. For example, a news item from Seattle, Washington, the other day, said that a train of 30 cars of Japanese soy bean oil had departed for the east for use in soap making. "Imports of soy bean oil through Seattle in March will have a value of $2,800,000." Some of the beans go also to England, and some to France, where a large oil-crushing plant is in operation at Marseilles, and where labor is considerably cheaper than it is here.

In the fiscal year 1913 we imported 11,000,000 pounds of oil cake, 1,875,000 pounds of which came from England, 1,000,000 from Canada, 3,000,000 from China, and 4,675,000 from Japan. In 1915, we imported 21,189,000 pounds, of which 8,000,000 came from Japan. During the calendar year 1916, we imported 45,000,000 pounds of this product. Not all of this oil cake was made from the soy bean, but all that came from Japan was, and foreign cheap labor had entered into its production.

Competition is soy bean oil has been even stiffer. In 1913 we imported 2,340,000 pounds; in 1914, 16,330,000 pounds; in 1915, 19,206,000 pounds. These are for fiscal years. During the calendar year 1916, just past, our imports of this oil reached the enormous total of 145,409,000 pounds. The price of animal oils and fats have become so high that soap makers are using soy bean oil, and there being no tariff duty to encourage the crushing of the bean in this country, Japan reaps the largest share of the benefit.

Southern cotton-seed crushers have declared: "If soy beans could be brought in duty free, they could be used to prolong the operating season of the crushing mills and refineries. The oil made from them is becoming a large factor of raw material for soap making. There is no reason why there should be a duty on the beans since the oil crushed therefrom in England and on the Continent is admitted free."

And there was no reason for the duty on the bean unless it could be grown here, which has been tested out to our satisfaction. Failure to place the oil and the cake on the dutiable list was an error in the Republican law; such action by the free trade Democrats was to be expected.

The next tariff law will be drafted by Republicans, and it will be an All-American bill; hence soy bean oil makers will get the protection to which they are entitled in order to meet Japanese competition, and American farmers will be encouraged to raise larger quantities of a product which gives fair promise of creating a new industry in the United States.

A DOMESTIC DANGER

Germans and pro-Germans living in the United States may find a lesson and a warning in the successful prosecution of conspirators against violators of our neutrality. If our secret service officers, with the aid of the secret service men of Great Britain, France and Canada, have been able to find out so much, it may be presumed that they know a good deal more. Persons engaged in plots against the United States are in great peril. The net has not been drawn by the Department of Justice and will not be until Congress acts.

Internal outbreaks of violence would lead to a serious curtailment of the liberty of alien malecontents. So much about German violations of our neutrality has been disclosed that those who have come from countries with which we are or shall be at war should be very circumspect in their conduct. Unfortunately, some foreign language newspapers are maintaining an anti-American attitude. The defiant tone of a German paper printed in Detroit is an invitation to the lightning to strike. Those who are not loyal to the United States in thought and word and deed must bow to the inevitable and avoid giving cause for action to the police. A few hot-headed fools can precipitate a condition that would force the Federal government to intern all German and Austro-Hungarian aliens in this country and to place thousands of their sympathizers in jail. This would be lamentable, but a few German language newspapers and loose-mouthed agitators can bring it to pass.—New York Commercial.

THE SPY BILL

The country needs to keep its eyes open and the only way that it can observe the shortcomings of the secretaries of war and navy and urge them to proper preparations is through an unmeasured or only slightly censored press.

England suffered one loss after another when the great war began because the censorship forbade the English press to disclose to the citizenry the weakness of administration and the muddling of the people's affairs. There should be no repetition of these disasters in this country. A final reason why a close censorship is unnecessary is that the possible Teutonic enemies already have in their possession far more detailed and far more valuable information concerning what little military power this nation possesses than the common run of its own citizens. Every fort, ship, troop, garrison and arsenal long since has been mapped and card indexed. Nothing could happen in the way of preparations within the next year or more which the secret agents of those powers have not already anticipated.—South Bend Tribune.

In reviewing all the time-consuming maneuvers of the last days of Congress, it will not do to lose sight of the fact that the Democrats used up four days in debating the oleo amendment to the revenue bill, the effect of which would have been to deprive the farmer of the protection which genuine butter now has against its imitator.

PLANS FOR INCREASE OF ARMED FORCES OF NATION MAPPED OUT IN CONFERENCE

Washington, March 29—Plans to forward further preparedness measures for the army today began to assume definite form.

How an increased armed force may be promptly secured for the present emergency as well as universal training as a national policy were discussed by President Wilson with Senator Chamberlain, of Oregon, chairman of the Senate Military Committee. At the same time Secretary Baker and administration leaders in Congress considered legislation needed immediately for the military establishment.

Senator Chamberlain told the President that he believed the executive now has authority without further action by Congress to raise at once an army of more than 700,000 by increasing the regular army to war strength and calling on all of the national guard, at war strength, with cooperation from state executives.

Entire Situation Discussed
There was no intimation that the President was considering such a step immediately, but the whole field of measures necessary to secure a larger force was discussed.

For present needs, the War Department, Secretary Baker said, has decided to submit to Congress a budget containing virtually the same reductions as the regular army appropriation bills, which failed at the last session.

Estimates for the expense in connection with an enlarged army for an emergency activity will be presented later. This decision coincides with the House plan to re-enact the appropriation bill without change and send it at once to the Senate.

Senator Chamberlain also agreed to expedite the bill in the Senate. To this end he said he would not again offer his universal training bill as a rider if it would delay prompt action on the supply measure.

The conference between the President and Senator Chamberlain at the latter's request, was primarily to discuss the Senator's universal training plan. He asked the President to enforce the general principles of compulsory training in his forthcoming message to Congress. The President, it was said, gave no indication of his probable course. He was said to favor some plan for providing military training but was non-committal regarding the Chamberlain plan, to which he is understood to have some objections.

Chamberlain Hopeful
After leaving the White House the Senator said he was "still hopeful" of administration endorsement of his measure, and also expressed increased optimism over prospects of passage by the Senate of some form of universal training measure. Several Senators, he said, who formerly opposed the plan, now favor it.

TO AILING WOMEN
A Little Sound Advice Will Help Many a Sufferer in Maysville

No woman should consider herself healthy and well if the kidneys are weak. Poisons that pass off when the kidneys are well, are retained in the body when the kidneys are disordered. If the kidneys and bladder become inflamed and swollen worse troubles may quickly follow. This is often the cause of bearing-down pains, lameness, backache, etc. Uric poisoning is also frequent cause of headaches, dizzy spells, languor, nervousness and rheumatic pain.

When suffering so, try Doan's Kidney Pills, a remedy that has proven effective in thousands of such cases. Let a Maysville woman tell of her experience.

Mrs. J. C. Hays, 493 W. Second St., Maysville, says: "About six years ago, I suffered from a severe attack of kidney trouble. My back first became lame and ached dreadfully. Pains shot through it clear up to my shoulder blades. My kidneys were irregular in action, too. A few boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at the Chenoweth Drug Co., helped me a great deal. My kidneys became normal and the pains left my back. I have used Doan's Kidney Pills for a similar attack since and they have proven satisfactory."

Mrs. Hays is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you—don't simply look for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mrs. Hays had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all drug stores. WHY MEN TURN GRAY

Washington, March 29—The annual food bill of the average family has grown from $339.30 in 1913 to $425.54 at present, the Department of Labor announced today in a review of food prices. In ten years, the department experts estimate, the advance in the cost of food has so far outstripped wage increases that the workmen who drew $3 a day in 1917 now find themselves just 69 cents a day worse off.

The heaviest increase in food supplies during the last four years is shown in potatoes, the cost of which has risen from $18.96 to $44.69. Other large increases are eggs, some $33.01 to $43.07; flour, $15.12 to $25.40; butter, $45.72 to $54.78. Of the whole list of foods only sirloin and round steaks are cheaper than five years ago.

If the weather favors a man in his business he thinks it's because he's so smart at it.

PLUM FALLS IN GOETHALS' LAP WHEN JERSEY GOVERNOR MAKES HIM STATE ENGINEER

Trenton, N. J., March 29.—General George W. Goethals, who built the Panama Canal, informed Governor Edge today that he had accepted the position of State Engineer, which was created under a special act during the present session of the Legislature, and which was offered to the General a few days ago.

General Goethals' name will be sent to the Senate tomorrow soon after it convenes. The rules may be suspended so that confirmation may be accorded the nomination immediately but if not the appointment will be approved when the lawmakers come back next week.

In addition to sending encouragement to Governor Edge and his administration in the various tasks that are about to be undertaken in an engineering way, and of which General Goethals will be in absolute charge, the acceptance by the General has put a quietus on several rumors emanating from Washington that he might become a member of President Wilson's Cabinet.

The selection of General Goethals means more than his supervision of the gigantic project of the $15,000,000 highway improvement that is proposed. There will be a wide distinction between the position he will occupy and that of State Highway Engineer provided for under the new state highway legislation. The law by which the engagement of General Goethals was made possible was drafted in such broad terms that his duties will embrace those of adviser to and supervisor of the work of any commission in existence or that may be created dealing with the question of tunnels under the Hudson River or bridges or tunnels in or over the Delaware, the state's part in the proposed trans-state ship canal or the problem of water front development, including New York harbor or any part lying wholly or in part within this state.

The salary to be paid to the State Engineer will be fixed by the Statehouse Commission, but Governor Edge today declined to say what salary General Goethals would receive. According to report, however, it is declared that it will be from $30,000 to $25,000 a year.

The Venezuelan Government has decided to build a highway across the republic that will be 600 miles long.

EMERGENCY BUDGET IS ADOPTED BY REICHSSTAG

London, March 29.—Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent quoting Berlin advices, says the Reichstag has adopted all three readings of the emergency budget. Both Socialist parties voted against the measure.

"Edward Bernstein, Socialist," says the advices, "delivered a speech justifying his opposition to the budget. He said experience had strengthened his distrust in the government, America was converted into an enemy and neutrals filled with displeasure for Germany. A good and sincere peace must be striven for at the speediest moment. Here Bernstein added that the events in Russia, under the leadership of the Socialists, strengthened the confidence that the Social democracy was able to fulfill its old peace program."

Dr. Peter Spahn, leader of the Catholic Centre party, denied that the Reichstag, as charged by the Prussia Herrenhaus, had meddled with things reserved for the Emperor and the Bundesrath. He added:

"If America comes to war with Germany we have confidence in the ability of the leaders in the army and navy to settle with her."

"Russia must be judged soberly and we must not interfere."

The Socialist, Gustav Noske, said, that Russian apprehension that Germany would seek to restore the regime of Emperor Nicholas must be officially dispelled.

FOOD PRICES MAKE BIG RECORD YEAR FOR STRIKES

Washington, March 29.—Scarcity of labor and high food prices made 1916 a record year for strikes in the United States. Statistics compiled today by the Department of Labor show there were 3,108 walk-outs of all kinds during the year. Demands for higher wages and for shorter hours caused two-thirds of the strikes. Most of the others were due to differences concerning unionization of labor.

In more than 700 of the strikes, the strikers won and employers were victorious in nearly 500. Others were compromised.

THREE-YEAR TERM

(Given Pete Faulkner, Colored, Charged With Murder—Three Important Cases Disposed of in the Mason Circuit Court.

In the Mason Circuit Court yesterday three very important cases were tried during the day. Commodore Gillespie for rape, found not guilty, Russell Gilliam, carrying concealed a deadly weapon, guilty, and Pete Faulkner, murder, guilty.

The first case was continued from Thursday, all of the evidence having been given in. After a short deliberation the jury returned a verdict for the defendant, Gillespie.

In the case against Robert Gilliam, alias Batls, he was found guilty of carrying a concealed deadly weapon and sentenced to the jail for ten days at hard labor and fined $50.

The last case occupied the attention of the court during the afternoon and evening. This case was held over from the December term of court and a large crowd was present to hear the testimony in the case.

The case grew out of wine and woman. Pete Faulkner, the negro accused of the crime, grew jealous when Albert Starks, the murdered man, went to Ripley in the company of Item Walker, a colored damsel of this city.

He followed Starks and they got into an argument, the latter hitting Pete. They exchanged blows and Starks hit Faulkner with a whiskey bottle, cutting a gash over his left eye. Faulkner then drew a pistol and shot Starks, inflicting a wound of which he died a short time later. Pete later surrendered to Deputy Sheriff Laycock at Dover.

The jury, composed of Messrs. F. W. Cramer, foreman, W. L. Allison, George Atkinson, Thomas Malloy, Frank Rice, William McNutt, John Walton, H. T. Crawford, J. D. Beckett, Clarence Matthews, Jack Bean and John H. Downing, spent three hours in coming to a decision in the case. They finally agreed on a sentence of three years in the penitentiary. For a time it was thought that they would be unable to come to an agreement last night and that the case would have to be continued until this morning.

TWO FATALITIES OCCUR

When Scaffold Breaks—Mr. Harry Ennis of This City One of the Dead Men—Will Be Buried Here Sunday.

Word was received in this city yesterday that Mr. Harry Ennis, a former resident of this city had been killed in a scaffold accident. First particulars were very meager, but later the full account of the accident was learned.

Mr. Ennis was a painter by trade but had been working in a mercantile establishment in Dayton. At the opening of spring he resumed his trade. He was working on the fifth floor of the Ribbold building in that city when the scaffold upon which he and a young man by the name of Charles E. Paulk, aged 31, were working gave away. The fall killed them both, their skulls being fractured and severe internal injuries being sustained by the victims. A pedestrian was injured by flying glass, broken by the scaffold.

Mr. Ennis was 41 years of age. He was a Maysvillian but had recently gone to Dayton. He was well-liked by all who knew him and had a host of friends in this city.

Mr. Ennis married Miss Annie Schatzman of this city, who together with two children, Esley, aged 14, and Annie, aged 12, survive him. He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Ben Maddox of Aberdeen and two brothers, one in Pittsburg, Pa., the other in Cincinnati.

The remains arrived here last evening on C. & O. train No. 4 and were taken to the home of Mrs. Ennis' mother, Mrs. George Schatzman on Lexington street.

No! You got it wrong. He is a prosecutor not a persecutor. Hear him at the Baraca Class Sunday.

SUPERVISOR'S REPORT

The following is the final report of Supervisor W. Mitchell for the 1916-17 tobacco season:

The Maysville Tobacco Market closed today March 29, 1917, selling 2,017,315 pounds of tobacco at an average of $17.22.

The market has been most satisfactory to both the buyer and the seller. The tobacco in most cases was in nice order.

The consumption of tobacco in all forms is constantly increasing but we do not expect to ever see low grades so high again and our advice is to grow and to handle your crops as well as possible.

We have the nicest and best set of buyers in the state.

Wishing all of the growers a successful summer and a good crop and with the best of wishes to the buyers and warehousemen.
